Yes, I do. I'm dismissing a lot of his charges and all that should remain is the drugs, OAS and a resisting arrest. I don't think I'll need you but I sent the summons just in case. I've spoken to the defense attorney and we are both planning on this case being a plea.

Hi Tim-

Still thinking that this case is going to plea? Just curious as I'm also on call for Holyoke that day (my Northampton case has an agreed upon resolution). Thanks.

Thanks for the heads up. It is getting a continuance, likely will be a plea April 4.

Hi Tim-

I just thought that I'd let you know that you had previously summonsed Jim Hanchett for the [REDACTED] case scheduled for trial today, but I am the chemist that did the analysis for the drug submission [REDACTED]. I'm not sure if anything happened today with the case, but if it was continued, you may want to make sure that I am on the list for witnesses and not Jim.
